

Olivia Greenwood

Olivia deserves ROCS RECOGNITION because, in addition to her positive attitude and enthusiasm, she is helpful in English 12 class not only to her peers but also, me. In discussions, she freely and respectfully shares her perspective and listens to others. I am so blessed to have Olivia as a student this year.

NOMINATOR: Rachel C. Sadauskas

Elayna Simon

Elayna deserves ROCS RECOGNITION because she handled a delicate situation with maturity and respect. When her peer apologized to her, she accepted his apology in a very calming manner.

NOMINATOR: Harold Andersen

SOAR 9th Grade Cohort

The SOAR Cohort deserves ROCS RECOGNITION because the students in this class demonstrate ROCS goals of community behavior daily. They help each other with homework, they encourage and support one another, and they each work extremely hard to achieve to the best of their ability. I feel very lucky to work with such a great classroom community of kids in this year's SOAR class.

NOMINATOR: Dr. Maguire

Meaghan Mullins

Meaghan deserves ROCS RECOGNITION because she displays the ROCS goals of community behavior every day in chamber choir. Her respectful behavior to both me and her classmates is a model for the younger and new students in the choir to work towards. She is very flexible when it comes to our seating arrangement to ensure all students are learning at the same pace. She is one of the representatives for our choir and will speak for us when we attend community events. Meaghan is a very hard-working student and we are lucky to have her in choir!

NOMINATOR: Mrs. McTavish

Maab Elhag

Maab deserves ROCS RECOGNITION because he sets a great example for peers in class by being a thoughtful and conscientious student, and he helps other students advocate for themselves.

NOMINATOR: Barbara Marks

Michael Dinkelman

Michael deserves ROCS RECOGNITION because he is not only respectful to both classmates and teachers, but always willing to put forth a special effort and give extra time to assist our class with technology challenges. Michael's invariable success means classmates see videos and math examples on Smart Board. His positive "can-do" approach sets an excellent example for all. We are most fortunate and thankful for Michael's presence in MAT.

NOMINATOR: Ms. Gan

Mark Hosmer and Kathryn Fatemi

Mark and Kathryn deserve ROCS RECOGNITION because they consistently demonstrate academic excellence through class participation as well as written assignments. Additionally, they have put in extra effort (and taken a degree of risk) to make sure that our classroom community is comfortable and inclusive for all students.

NOMINATOR: Dan Barkan