

Join APS Psychologists for a Discussion of Student STRESS AND MENTAL HEALTH

Wednesday, January 13, 2021
2:00-3:00 p.m.

Please join YHS School Psychologists Bethany Banal and Solange Caovan-Hornbake for a live virtual presentation on Stress and Mental Health. This event, geared toward parents of secondary school students, will be held via Teams Live on Wed. January 13, 2021, from 2-3 pm and will address:

- Monitoring mental health/well-being
- Recognizing signs of anxiety and depression
- How to respond when your student seems stressed
- Strategies for listening to your student in a helpful way that doesn't inflame their anxiety
- How to figure out how to help your student
- What to do if you believe that your student may be having suicidal ideation.

All APS parents/guardians are welcome at this APS-wide presentation.
