Sources of Strength Peer Leaders Introduce Strengths on the Wheel

Strengths

Family Support

Whether related to us by blood, or by choice, these are the people who support, nurture, and care for us.

Positive Friends

Positive friends lift us up, make us laugh, are honest with us, and are there for us when we need them

Mentor

A Mentor is an experienced person who shares their insight to help guide us, and help us draw on our own strengths to be the best version of ourselves.

Healthy Activities

When we feel stressed, Healthy Activities - whether they are social, physical, or emotional - help us unwind, lift our mood, and gain clarity.

Strengths

Generosity

Generosity can look a lot of different ways, from donating money or time, to being intentionally kind to other people. These acts of kindness towards others, big or small, can make an impact on how we feel about ourselves.

Spirituality

Spirituality is practiced in many ways, but at it's core we consider what gives us a sense of purpose and connection in our spirit. Thankfulness is a profound way to practice Spirituality together no matter what our cultural heritage and/or spiritual tradition.

Strengths

Physical Health/Medical Access

When we are injured, we don't have to stay in pain. We can get better with access to the medical care we need and deserve. Physical and social/emotional pain are often integrated and it's important to take care of our bodies, hearts, and minds.

Mental Health

Mental Health is all about getting the support we need and deserve to help us when we are struggling. Our mental health is a very important part of living a healthy life, and oftentimes, getting together with a trusted person, a counselor, or a doctor can help empower us to overcome internal struggles we might be facing.
