

Call to Action!

Student Substance Abuse and Mental Health Panel

Join the PTA/PTSAs from Washington-Liberty, Wakefield and Yorktown High School along with CCPTA to learn about the impact that mental health challenges, drugs, and alcohol are having on our children, and how to prevent substance abuse. Panelists include fellow parents, psychotherapists, and representatives from the Arlington Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court, the Commonwealth's Attorney, the Drug Enforcement Agency, the Arlington County Police Department, Inova Behavioral Health Service for Children and Families, and the National Alliance on Mental Illness Parent Support Group.

March 13th

Thomas Jefferson Middle School - Door 1, in the Theater (parking garage available)
125 S. Old Glebe Road

7-8 pm informal chat with our panelists

7:30 pm screening of pre-recorded panelist interviews

8-9 pm call to action presentation and discussion

Follow the discussion from 8pm-9pm via Zoom

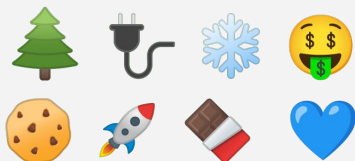

For more information and to register in advance to attend via Zoom go to

<https://www.arlingtonccpta.org/outreach/>

(Spanish and Amharic translations will be available for the in person event and live Zoom discussion)

Can't make the event?
Watch the recording afterwards on the website link above!

A drug deal doesn't look like it did in the 90s - can you match these emojis to the drug terms?

Possible choices:

- cocaine
- crystal meth
- drug dealer/hookup
- high quality drugs
- large amount of drugs
- advertising drugs
- Marijuana
- Xanax